"Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all Churches of Christ. Scientist. The Golden Text is from I John: "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God."

A Bible selection includes these words from John: "And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. When he heard Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death. In which Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. . . . And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth. Then he said, he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father said, In which was the same hour, in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole household."

One of the passages from the Christmas Season textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, states: "In the history of life that is here to-day and gone tomorrow, man would be wholly mortal, were it not that Love, the divine Principle that obtains in divine Science, destroys all error and brings immortality to light."

OBITUARY

ROYCE TIDWELL, who was fatally injured Aug. 24 in the line of duty on route from Camp Knox to Louisville, Ky., was accorded last rites Saturday afternoon at the C. H. Cleveland chapel in San Pedro. Private Tidwell was hurt when an army "jeep" failed to negotiate a curve and crashed over an embankment. He and a comrade had been dispatched to Louisville to bolster a military police complement, it was learned by Haskell Tidwell, elder brother of the soldier, who lives in Harbor City.

Mr. Tidwell, who was 26 years old, was also survived by his widow, Sandra; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Tidwell of 1600 216th st., Members of the San Pedro Chapter, Order of De Molay, served as pallbearers. Entombment followed in Angelus Abbey.

After enjoying the hospitality of Manhattan Beach for a month, Palos Verdes Symphony is back to the far flung rafters of its synagogue in the hills, if you like John McGroarty, or were back to practice on the baseball grounds if you are more baseball minded. The orchestra is grateful for ideal accommodations at Palos Verdes school house. The roomy, airy, high vaulted auditorium provides every convenience including good acoustics. And such service, too. Every Monday evening Custodian Jim Kinsman, has everything in readiness, every chair placed and every light adjusted.

The charming and efficient secretary of the orchestra committee, one of our first-desk "cello players, has a new job. We congratulate Mrs. Aileen Hammond on acquiring Marjorie Bowling of Redondo Beach as secretary and receptionist at her office at the high school, Marjorie was the outstanding girl solo singer in 1936, so the bronze plaque says, and we in the orchestra just know that Marjorie is the girl for the place.

"Every Fall we lose somebody in the interests of higher learning and this time Wilbur Hornstra, trombonist from Lomita, goes cast to college. That leaves a vacant chair. Wilbur and his sister Jean in the violins have been valued members. But Lomita still furnishes the first trombonist in the person of Al Doucet.

It is rumored that Mrs. Victor H. Norman of Palos Verdes Estates is to play the piano part in one of the October concert numbers.
